

2.4 Direction setting

According to the relative positions between the operating personnel and the robot, the Direction setting helps to know the moving direction of the robot. There are four options available: A, B, C, and D.

